SPECIAL THANKS

South City Theatre would like to thank the Pelham BEAT for their sponsorship of this production and the City of Pelham for providing the “stage” for this production. We would also like to recognize Tyler Costley, who began this production as Mr. Ellis Martindale. Tyler experienced some health issues and had to drop out. We love him and wish him a speedy recovery.

DIRECTOR’S NOTES

I got my first stage role during my freshman year at Miami University. One night the director, Dr. David Ballard, said to me, “Tom, you’re a good actor. But you would probably be a great director.” I believe with all my heart that the truth of that statement remains to be seen. I do know that in my time I have worked with some amazingly talented actors. This cast is a great representation of that. The beauty and comedy of this show rests in the characters. It has been a true pleasure to watch this cast bring them to life. They have made my job easy. I also know that I have worked under a few brilliant directors. I hope I do them justice when I say that I have tried to incorporate many of their styles into my own. Thanks to them for teaching me. Thanks to all of you who support local theatre, especially South City. I believe I speak for the entire cast and crew when I invite you to sit back, relax, and leave the craziness of this world while you enjoy the craziness of Hendricks.
